

BOSTON TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA
2017 Versatility Award

The Boston Terrier Club of America offers to its members and to members of its Affiliate Clubs, an award commemorating achievement of dual titles. All dogs must be an AKC champion of record. For a silver level award the dog must also have a single title in a performance or an obedience event. For a gold level award the dog must have a title in both a performance and an obedience event. For a platinum level award the dog must have a title in both performance and obedience and any additional AKC title. All titles must have been completed on or before December 31, 2016. Dogs may earn all three awards over the course of their life, but may only receive each award once. Please include a copy of the championship certificate and other qualifying title certificate(s). There is no fee for this award.
