2023 National Specialty Show

2023 Versatility Award

The Boston Terrier Club of America offers to its members and to members of its Affiliate Clubs, an award commemorating achievement of dual/multiple titles. All dogs must be an AKC champion of record. For a silver level award, the dog must also have a single title in a Companion, Performance, or Title Recognition Program event. For a gold level award, the dog must also have a title in two different event categories (Companion, Performance, or Title Recognition Program). For a platinum level award, the dog must also have a title in all three event categories (Companion, Performance, or Title Recognition Program). See the page that follows for more information about event categories. All titles must have been completed on or before December 31, 2022. Dogs may earn all Versatility Awards over the course of their life, but may only receive each award once. Please include a copy of the championship certificate and other qualifying title certificate(s). There is no fee for this award.
